Fall on the Farm

From The Desk Of Edward J. Haggerty Sr.

October in New England is certainly one of the most picturesque seasons we enjoy. All the colors of the foliage coupled with the crispness of the Autumn air turn our thoughts to pumpkins, turkey, and warm cider. At the same time, we ponder what to do with the Certificates of Deposit down at the bank that are now coming due.

There is, the vehicle is called an Annuity and it comes in many forms. Suitability of customer to company and product is paramount. The best option would be to meet with a professional that can provide you with the facts to help you determine if an Annuity is a suitable investment for your funds.

Tabor Company Tackles Greek Drama

By Kenneth J. Souza

The Tabor Academy Drama Company will be performing Metamorphoses on November 1, November 2 and November 3 at the Will Parker Black Box Theater at 7:30 pm each night. After production in Marion, the group will take the show overseas to England for production at multiple venues in the spring of 2008.

Director and producer Director Richard Van Voris worked with Tabor senior co-producer and choreographer Johanna Wickemeyer to craft this moving and provocative play that will entertain and stimulate the emotions of all those who will see it.

"Metamorphoses is a challenging an interesting production," Mr. Van Voris said. "It is a retelling of the Ovid myth — the Greek myth including (the tales of) Midas and Orpheus. It was written by a woman at Northwestern University named Mary Zimmerman ... and it was nominated for a Tony Award."

Ms. Zimmerman's play is based on an ancient poet Ovid's extensive epic poems about the history of earth's creation as based on Greek myths. This modern interpretation of those myths will be portrayed in short scenes expressed through movement, live music and dialogue. Some of the musical numbers are original and written by the Tabor musicians.

This is a fast-paced program that will take the audience from one emotion to another. Watch out for several dance numbers that will surely to get your feet tapping in time to the beat.

"This is a production that we put together here at Tabor which includes live music as well as dance to kind of flesh out the words ... to support the text in a very visual and audible way," Mr. Van Voris noted. "It's really been an interesting show to work on."

Not only with Tabor's Drama troupe perform the production this weekend on campus, but it will also take the show on the road in the spring where it will be performed in England.

"In March we have a theater exchange program that we do with Ellesmere College in England, so we are going to be taking this with us when we go to England in March," Mr. Van Voris said. "It's a show that has some legs, as it were. I feel it's a very strong show and it really deals, thematically ... with the big issues in our lives — birth, death and love. Those issues were as important to the Greeks 2,000 years ago as they are to us today."

Lighting and stage craft share a front place seat in this performance. Particularly notable are the lighting effects during the tale of Midas.

The Tabor Company consists of ten student actors, three musicians, lightning designers and stage managers all of whom worked together to express the three themes of human existence, birth, death and human love that enables perpetuation. This is a must-see theater production that is truly unique.

Metamorphoses first opened on Broadway in 2002 and it subsequently won the 2002 Tony award for Best Director and was nominated for the Tony Award for Best Play.

Due to adult themes and actions, there is parental advisement for children under the age of 8.

Y's present Camp Massasoit location, the YMCA with the help of the Salty Dog Ranch, has been hosting this tri-town tradition for 16 years. With an army of tiny witches, superheroes, pirates, cats and dogs invading the premises, the YMCA had prepared a evening of activities, games and ghost stories that was much more treat than trick.

The genesis of the event is rooted in Ken Dawicki's Salty Dog Ranch where Mr. Dawicki used to offer Halloween hayrides to the people of Mattapoisett about 20 years ago when his children were small and involved in little league and school events. Mr. Dawicki would invite families out to his property on Achushnet Road where he would he would cart them around on an old hay covered trailer with his tractor.

"I had my kids and people would just come out and have fun," he said. "We wanted to do this for the little kids so we never made the ride a haunted hayride, because we didn't want to scare the little ones."

One of the people who used to attend Mr. Dawicki's hayrides was YMCA director Gary Schuyler, whose son was a friend of Mr. Dawicki's son, Scott. When the Mattapoisett YMCA opened in 1992, Mr. Schuyler approached his friend to see if he would be interested in bringing the hayride to the camp on the edge of Mattapoisett Harbor. Mr. Dawicki agreed on the condition that the ride would not turn into a haunted hayride because he wanted it to remain toddler friendly. The two agreed and the YMCA has been hosting the event ever since.

For this year's hayride, Mr. Dawicki and his son Scott brought their newly-restored 1940s McCormick-Deering Farmall H model tractor. The two brought the old workhorse back to life over the last year and thought that the old machine would add a nice touch. Scott, who was one of the youngest children when to participate in the hayrides when they first began, is now the person driving the tractor as he continues what has become a family tradition.

For the event the YMCA building was filled with volunteers who helped the children make masks, bob for donuts, play games of ring toss and pumpkin bowling, where the pins were fashioned in the shape of ghosts. Those who did wish to add a little fright to their night gathered on the beach around a bonfire to listen to ghost stories and hear tall tales about the witches and spirits who haunt the woods in and around Mattapoisett.

By the end of the evening about 300 souls had made the trip around Camp Massasoit. As each fairy princess, tiny frog or future fireman climbed aboard the ride, Mr. Dawicki smiled.

"You know, this is what it is all about," he said. "Little kids having fun."

on the Southcoast. Between now and the holiday season, the arts calendar is filled with world-class performers playing dates throughout the region. On Sunday night, October 28, the Mattapoisett Congregational Church welcomed the Providence Mandolin Orchestra to Reynard Hall for an evening of stringed delights.

Originally the concert was to include a dual performance by the combined talents of the PMO and the Ensemble a Plectre de Toulouse. The French orchestra was not able to make their scheduled appearance due to an Air France strike that left the musicians stranded on their native soil. This did not, however, diminish the night's entertainment in any way as the ensemble from Providence gave an outstanding performance of compositions that spanned the history of the mandolin and its many musical cousins.

The Providence Mandolin Orchestra, under the supervision of musical director Mark Davis, is one of the nation's leading mandolin orchestras. The group performs on a regular basis throughout Southern New England and also makes many national and international appearances. The thirty-piece ensemble has been in existence since 1971 and was founded by the late Hibbard Perry. Mr. Davis said that the group carries on the tradition in honor of their founder and former instructor who mentored many of the members of the Orchestra during their student years.

Sunday's performance was one of pure aural pleasure. In an evening that included a program full of superb performances, the PMO saved some of their finest efforts for several pieces that had personal connections to the ensemble. Orchestra member Owen Hartford penned two of the selections performed by the group while Director Davis composed a third. The night's musical highlight was a rendition of a composition by the late Japanese composer, Yasuo Kuwahara, "Song of Japanese Autumn." In introducing the piece, Mr. Davis said, "This is a composition by someone who we considered a friend. A person we lost too soon and we'd like to perform this 'Song of Japanese Autumn' in his honor."

The song gave the audience a full idea of the width and breadth of the sonic capacity of a mandolin orchestra, which is not unlike that of a chamber ensemble. Alone, a mandolin is a quiet instrument. When combined with other like instruments and complimented by musical cousins the mandocello, mandola, classical guitar and bass, the sound is rich and full. When played by a group as talented as the PMO, the music soars and shimmers in an impressionistic arc of sound. At the end of the Kawa-hara piece the audience let out a collective gasp with several people saying: "wow!" ... such was the beauty virtuosity of the music they had just heard.

The Mattapoisett Congregational Church performance was one of many scheduled during the Franco-American Mandolin Festival. The eight-day celebration of plucked instruments also includes dates in Connecticut and Rhode Island. The Providence Mandolin Orchestra hopes that the Ensemble a Plectre de Toulouse will be able to join them for a scheduled performance at St. Martin's Church in Providence on Saturday evening, November 3 at 8:00 pm. Mattapoisett's inclusion in the festival came at the invitation of the Rev. Dr. Virginia White, a mandolin player herself, who offered the PMO the chance to perform at her church after she attended one of their concerts.

For more information about the Mandolin Festival and the PMO, you can visit the group at their web-site at www.mandolin-orchestra.org.

After a Salute to the Flag and a moment of silence for those serving our country oveseas, Mr. Hartley noted all zoning by-law changes on the warrant this evening would require a two-thirds majority vote to pass, while all others would only need a simple majority.

Under ARTICLE 1, voters were asked to amend the town's Personnel By-Laws so as to reduce the number of members on the Personnel Board from six to four with each member serving three-year terms. The reason for making the change, according to members of the Personnel Board, was that recent history has dictated that it has been difficult to achieve a quorum and allow the board to function.

Article 1 passed unanimously.

Under ARTICLE 2, voters were asked to amend the town's so-called Backlot By-Law. Legal interpretation of the current by-law requires no further subdivision of the remaining property. This change would relieve the constraint and make explicit a backlot requirement that such a lot could be achieved by subdivision.

Article 2 passed unanimously.

Under ARTICLE 3, voters were asked to amend the town's Common Driveway By-Law.

As currently written, it is not possible to apply this by-law to achieve a Common Driveway within a subdivision application. The proposed change would rectify this. Since the by-law was under consideration, the Planning Board saw the opportunity to remove detailed design criteria as these are now properly codified in the "Rules and Regulations Governing Subdivisions." In addition, signage and street address protocol is updated to be consistent with new "911" guidelines.

Article 3 passed unanimously.

Under ARTICLE 4, voters were asked to amend the Flexible Development By-Law.

For Flexible Development projects there have been difficulties in defining the "Basic Maximum Number" of lots allowable during Special Permit proceedings. The recent 115-lot Connet Woods application on the Striar property led to this proposal. In addition, some difficulties experienced with disposition of the Open Space for Bogview Estates, which is the Thistle Lane community permitted under this by-law, led to expansion and refinement of the options. During review, the board found some other features, which needed updates.

According to Town Planner Randall Kunz, adoption of Article 4 would allow the Planning Board to review development projects in terms of "allowable density" and determine individual lot sizes. "We had some difficulty with flexible development in town ... with having the property deeded," Mr. Kunz said.

Tax Collector Tom Gayoski questioned how liens on such property would be enforced if the town needed to.

Town Counsel Blair Bailey noted the town could file suit and would have to be more proactive in going after such liens in the future.

With that, Article 4 passed unanimously.

Under ARTICLE 5, voters were asked to amend the Zoning By-Laws to permit Special Residential Development.

The Special Residential Development by-law enabled The Pines at Hathaway Pond and Trailside Estates which has "broken ground" on the north end of Snipatuit Road. The by-law itself works well but the Planning Board seeks to add landscaping requirements to be certain future projects come out at least as attractive as The Pines.

Article 5 passed unanimously.

Under ARTICLE 6, voters were asked to amend the Soil By-Law to require a $200 filing fee and agricultural plan be submitted for all projects. The Soil Board needs a plan to comprehend the extent of an application and to determine when a project is completed, according to Town Planner Randall Kunz.

Selectmen Chairman Brad Morse asked if this would be the requirement for all agricultural projects since this might be cost-prohibitive for small earth removal jobs. "Once you make it a by-law, there's no exceptions to it," he said. "That's just my issue with this."

"The Soil Board has found it really awkward to approve an application when they have no designation of how large or small a job is and they have no way to determine when a job is complete," Mr. Kunz said.

"We have eight to ten permits open in town right now ... this is for people who are removing sand and selling it," said Soil Board member Ron Belrose. "This is not for small projects. We, as members of the Soil Board, need some type of document to follow, not just something drawn up on the back of an envelope."

In order to accommodate smaller earth removal projects, a motion was made to amend the article by adding "for applications exceeding 10,000 cubic yards" at the end of the wording.

The motion to amend carried via majority vote, 30 to 10.

"We have to have something in our hand to guide us so when we vote and approve Earth Removal Permits, we have something to fall back on," said Soil Board member Gary Florindo.

"I'm getting the feeling not everyone understands this (by-law), so I think we should table it," suggested resident Lena Bourque.

With that, Article 6 was table indefinitely.

Under ARTICLE 7, voters were asked to modify the Soil By-Law so as to limit the amount of heavy truck traffic associated with various earth removal projects by prohibiting the importing of materials other than those needed for restoration purposes.

Heavy truck traffic for soil removal is an imposition on the surrounding residents. Importation of material for the purpose of mixing with indigenous material to make it more salable simply adds to the imposition.

"This would give us some type of by-law to protect us from this situation," said Soil Board member Gary Florindo. "If we don't have some sort of by-law, the Earth Removal Permit can go from 10,000 to 20,000 cubic yards. Projects will last a year instead of the five months as requested in the hearing."

Article 7 passed via majority vote.

Under ARTICLE 8, voters were asked to amend the Soil By-Law to limit legitimate restoration of an approved project requiring stone in the form of rip-rap for retention of slopes and sidewalls.

Approval of the proposed amendment might limit legitimate restoration of an approved project requiring stone in the form of rip-rap.

"We are now seeking to add ... where when your project calls for rip-rap and retention walls, you're not importing inappropriate materials, you're importing materials that are part of the (planned project)," Mr. Kunz said.

Mr. Hartley suggested Article 8 might be redundant given the wording in Article 7.

However, Article 8 ultimately passed as moved via majority vote.

Under ARTICLE 9, voters were asked to amend the Soil By-Law to allow the Soil Board to retain technical consulting advice or legal advice at the expense of an applicant in situations where they have limited experience as needed.

Article 9 passed unanimously.

Under ARTICLE 10, voters were asked to amend the Zoning By-Laws to delete reference to a "half story." The Town of Rochester Zoning By-Law does not currently support a definition for a half story. The Massachusetts State Building Code, CMR 780, does not support a definition of a half story. Effectively, this by-law is unenforceable.

Article 10 passed unanimously.

Under ARTICLE 11, voters were asked to amend the Wetlands By-Law to establish a "25-Foot No Disturb Zone" from wetlands as proposed by the Conservation Commission (ConCom).

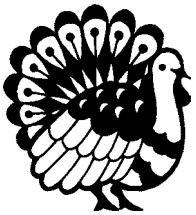

According to ConCon Chairman Rosemary Smith, a buffer of natural vegetation along a wetland is essential to protect drinking water and wildlife habitat. This zone is intended mainly for new development and construction projects and would not include existing landscaped beds, existing lawns, existing gardens and agricultural fields, existing cart paths, or existing utilities and stormwater management systems.

"This has been an informal policy (in town) for the past three years," added Conservation Agent Laurell J. Farinon, "and in that time we have had 250 projects approved near wetlands."

Selectman Morse questioned if this has been a ConCom policy for years why it needed to become a by-law now.

Ms. Farinon noted it would give the ConCom

Animal Advice

DOGS AND PICKUP TRUCKS

My dog loves to ride in the cargo area of our pickup truck. He is a big dog with a heavy coat. My question is how cold is too cold to let him travel in the back?

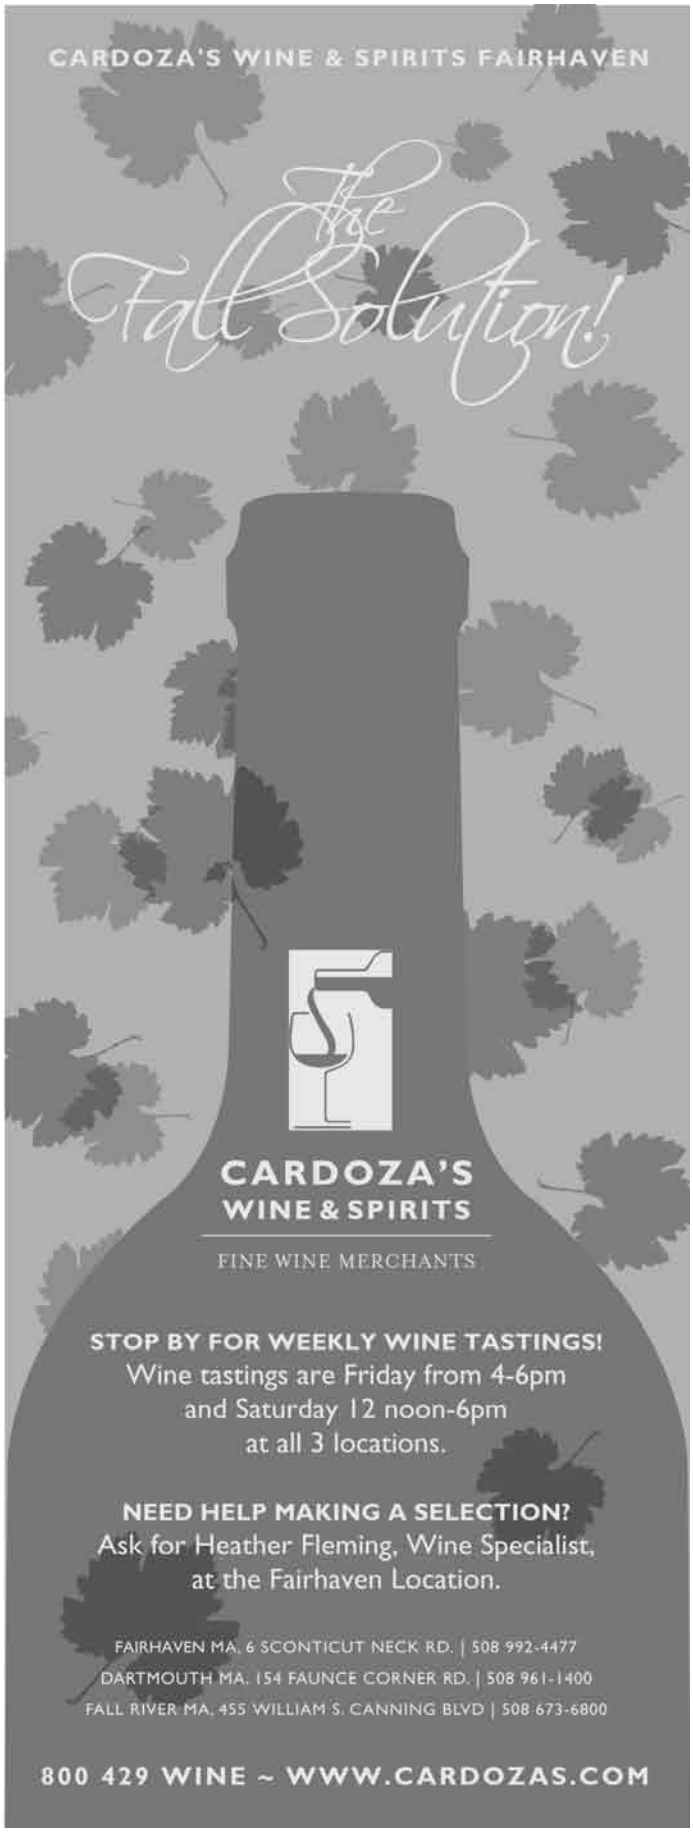

I fear that you may be worried about garter snakes in a rattle snake pit. Hundreds of dogs die annually from jumps from pickup truck cargo beds. Dogs see another dog and want to play, they lean over the edge too far or are thrown out during an emergency avoidance maneuver or accident. Fractured legs are also common.

If you must keep the dog in the cargo bed consider a cap. It will provide safety from jumping as well as windchill.

The temperature that can be tolerated by any specific dog varies massively and depends to a large degree on acclimation. A dog that is kept outdoors in a dog house will be able to stand much colder conditions for longer than a housepet.

With the fall prep sports regular season schedule drawing to a close, Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School and Old Rochester Regional High School both had lighter than usual game loads over the past week. For some Teams the season will not end with the completion of the schedule as many of the two schools' Teams are heading for, or all ready participating in, post season play.

The ORR Golf Team completed a terrific season by placing third at the State Division III meet at Wentworth Hills Golf Club in Plainville on Monday, October 29. The Bulldogs finished the tournament with a score of 325, two strokes behind runner-up Hopkinton and 20 behind champion Weston. David Lash shot a 7-over-par 78 to lead ORR, with Brandon Oldham and Ned Havel each shooting a round of 82 while Jake Winn contributed an 83 to the ORR effort. Brian Heacox and John Coucci shot rounds of 85 and 86.

The ORR Bulldog Football Team continues to roll through their SCC schedule. On Friday October 26 the Bulldogs went on the road to down Dighton-Rehoboth

Old Colony's Boys Soccer Team continues to overwhelm the competition behind the goal-scoring prowess of Shawn Ferreria who help lead the Cougars to a win and a tie this past week as the team gets ready for the state tournament. Ferreria continued to add his school record for goals by adding two more in a 4-0 win at home versus Diman Tech on Wednesday, October 24. Old Colony tied Bristol-Plymouth 3-3 on Friday, October 26 with Ferreria adding two more goals. The Cougars, who are now 15-1-2 on the season with a Mayflower League mark of 10-1-1, will play for the state Voke Tech championship on Wednesday, October 31.

The ORR Boys Soccer Team is qualified for the state tournament and is riding a five game unbeaten string into the regular season's final week. The Bulldogs fought their way to two ties this past week as they matched Martha's Vineyard 3-3 on Monday, October 22 and tied Seekonk 1-1 on Wednesday, October 24. ORR is now 7-6-4 on the regular season with an SCC mark of 7-6-2.

The Lady Bulldogs Soccer Team is riding an even longer unbeaten string into the post season as they ended the regular season with a nine game unbeaten streak, winning their final seven. The Ladies have allowed only one goal over their last seven games behind the strong goal tending of Caileigh Stevens. For the week ORR went 3-0 with a 2-0 shutout win over Martha's Vineyard on Monday, October 22, a 6-0 win at home versus Seekonk on Wednesday, October 24 and a season closing 1-0 win at Martha's Vineyard on Saturday, October 27. Casie Mathews scored the lone goal for the ORR in the win on the island as the team ended the season with a 12-6-2 overall mark and a record of 10-4-2 in SCC play.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

On behalf of the students, faculty and Board of Trustees of Nativity Preparatory School of New Bedford I would like to thank The Wanderer for so generously providing excellent coverage for the recent golf tournament held at the Bay Club to benefit our school. The event netted over $45,000 for Nativity thanks to the tireless efforts and commitment of Charlotte Oliveira, Barbara Urquhart, both residents of Mattapoisett and John Kelleher of Dartmouth who were Co Chairs for the event as well as auction Co-Chairs Angela Fusco of Mattapoisett and Marion resident Bernadette Kelly. The Master of Ceremonies for the evening was Peter Kavanaugh, a member of the Board of Trustees of Nativity.

tus." Following an arduous one year self-assessment consisting of thorough examination of the Rochester senior center operation based on the nine national standards, an on-site peer review was held on September 26 and 27. At that time, the reviewer met with staff, town officials, participants, volunteers, and members of the self-assessment committees (65), and further observed programs in action at the senior center. His subsequent written evaluative report was then submitted to the National Accreditation Board for its approval and vote.

Rochester Council on Aging (COA) Director Sharon Lally received the official phone-call from the National Accreditation Board just moments after it had voted on the report and reviewer's recommendations. This national accreditation is good for a period of five years, at which time the whole process will begin anew. The Accreditation Process ensures that the minimum standards of senior center operation are being met, in order to best meet and reflect the needs and interests of Rochester's Senior Citizen community. The nine standards include: Purpose, Program, Governance, Fiscal, Human Resources/Administration, Evaluation, Community, Records and Reports, and Facility.

Rocherolle. Rocherolle graduated from Newcomb College of Tulane University with a BA in music and is currently a resident of Old Lyme, CT. Jambalaya, A Portrait of Old New Orleans premiered a month before Hurricane Katrina struck. It is dedicated to "the memory of the old city the way I always knew her, and to those who will never again have the chance to know her."

That willl be followed by Octo-Paganini by Andrew Peggie. In this piece, Peggie, who studied with Stephen Sondheim and has had works produced in many of London's West End theatres as well as in major concert halls, explores the diabolical elements in Paganini's often quoted melody and takes it apart with its rhythm and underlying harmonies fully explored before being reassembled over jazz-like harmonies.

The concert will close with a waltz from Charles Gounod's opera, Faust. Faust was composed in 1859 and is considered a far advancement over Gounod's prior works, one critic stated his doubt that Gounod composed it, which prompted Gounod to challenge the critic to a duel. The critic withdrew his statement.

This will truly be a fantastic musical adventure from the Baroque music of Bach through to music of the 21st century. This concert is certain to delight one and all!

and February at 7:30 pm (pre-concert lecture at 7:00 pm) and St. Gabriel's Church in March on Saturday at 7:30 pm (pre-concert lecture at 7:00 pm).

The January program will be a French concert featuring the music of Hector Berlioz, Albert Roussel, Claude Debussy, and Jean Francaix. Here listeners will enjoy the wide spectrum of sound offered by the Chamber Music Society — flute, oboe, cello, violin, viola, piano, and voice — in ravishing pieces adored for their lyricism and grace, their passion and power.

From Claude Debussy's justly admired String Quartet in G minor, a seminal work in the development of 20th century music, to Hector Berlioz's "Les Nuits d'ete" ("The Summer Nights"), his lovely settings of six of Theodore Gautier's most evocative poems, the SCCMS's program promises an in-depth look at one culture's contributions to the musical universe we cherish today.

Listeners will be able to discern that French love of classicism, the kind of order and harmony so evident in their drama, for example, and then see how it began to shade into impressionistic music that truly does tame the savage breast.

In February, the Chamber Music Society offers an international program with Russian-born Dmitri Shostakovich's String Quartet in C major, Englishman Gerald Finzi's lovely Interlude for oboe and strings, and Argentinean composer A. E. Ginastera's colorful Impresiones de la Puna.

While concertgoers are generally familiar with Shostakovich, the program will also give audiences the chance to hear Finzi's haunting quartet and the peculiarly native melodies of Ginastera, whose work, writes one music historian, combines "exhilarating rhythmic energy, captivating lyricism and hallucinatory atmosphere."

In March the South Coast Chamber Music Society literally pulls out all the stops. In concerts that feature organ, harpsichord, and voice, in addition to flute, oboe, viola and cello, the power of chamber music to move audiences deeply will be amply demonstrated.

The concert offers selections by Ludwig Krebs, Gabriel Faure, and Rudolf Escher. Krebs, who was taught by Johann Sebastian Bach, devoted his life to the organ and achieved a reputation second only to his master's. In his Fantasie, Krebs showcases what some have called his impressive "dramatic power," and will make devotees of the organ and of J.S. Bach's music deeply satisfied.

Then, too, the concert offers a Trio Sonata by Mozart and Le Tombeau de Ravel by Rudolf Escher. Although much of Escher's work was destroyed during wartime bombing in Rotterdam, thankfully his transcription for orchestra of six epigraphs by Debussy survives.

In this tribute to one of his major influences, Escher employs the harpsichord to stunning effect, as will be clear when SCCMS audiences hear the virtuoso play-

"Rosie's ability to teach newcomers and experienced painters simultaneously and to satisfy both is terrific," said a former student. Ms. Nadeau has conducted workshops in Chatham at the Creative Arts Center, at the Falmouth Artists Guild and at Boca Grande Art Alliance in Florida to mention a few.

She earned her BFA from the Maryland Institute College of Art and has participated in Master workshops often. She earned signature membership in the Pastel Society of America, the Connecticut Pastel Society and the Pastel Painters Society of Cape Cod. Her work is in many corporate and private collections and has been published in numerous magazines. She has illustrated internationally known art books including "The Pastel Artist's Bible" by Claire Waite Brown.

To reserve a space in the one-day workshop, please call the Marion Art Center at 508-748-1266. The fee is $85 for MAC members and $100 for non-members. Space is limited. Students should bring their own supplies. A list of materials will be provided at the Center and on the website. DeRugeris Exhibit

A collection of new work by artist Joan DeRugeris, titled "Insights" is now on display at the Marion Art Center.

DeRugeris, a resident of Marion since 1986, has had a long artistic career. She began her commercial work as a textile designer for men and women's wear in New York City. She also designed for the Home Furnishing market. She has been exhibiting her paintings for more than twenty-five years.

scapes go from mythical to minimalist abstract. Buildings draw you into an imaginary environment, and objects not depicted in the natural world form contemporary abstract compositions. Her work is in many public and private collections.

DeRugeris refers to herself as an intuitive painter. She prefers to see how far she can go from what she sees or recalls by breaking down the elements into pattern and design while still keeping the feel of what drew her to the subject to begin with. "This kaleidoscope of work," DeRugeris said, "is a one-woman Group Show."

The exhibition runs through November 16. The Marion Art Center is located at the corner of Main and Pleasant Streets in Marion. Gallery hours are Tuesday through Friday, 1:00 to 5:00 pm, Saturdays, 10:00 am to 2:00 pm. Admission is free.

MAC Book

Local landmark, the Marion Art Center, is the subject of a recent addition to the Images of America series by Arcadia Publishing. Authored by longtime Marion resident and avid historian Judith Westlund Rosbe, the book chronicles the MAC's history, from its 1957 inception by a group of amateur actors from Saint Gabriel's Episcopal Church to its current position as a permanent and vital hub of the fine and performing arts in the South Coast area, and home to the Cecil Clark Davis Gallery. Divided into four sections, the book explores MAC's Theater productions, Art Gallery and artists, Cecil Clark Davis Collection/Archives, and various other activities, such as Young People's Theater, Art Camp and Studio classes.

Through the use of archival photographs and the research of local historians, the Images of America series preserves and celebrates local heritage, and makes readily-accessible the history of towns, neighborhoods and organizations across the country.

Mattapoisett Tax Bills

The second quarter of the 2008 Preliminary Tax Bills are due November 1. Tax bills were mailed on June 30 with payment coupons for both the first and second quarters attached at the bottom of the bills and the receipt portion at the top. Taxpayers should have retained the second quarter payment coupon for payment due by November 1. Notices of due dates will appear quarterly in The Wanderer, on the Town's website, on local cable TV and on the Lion's Club board on Route 6. There will be a 50-cent charge for reprinting a tax bill.

Taxpayers are encouraged to register for making online payments on the eBill website at www.mcc.net. By using eBill taxpayers can have their payments withdrawn from their checking or savings accounts or can make payments using MasterCard, American Express and Discover credit cards. Payments can be made using eBill until 11:59 pm on the due date of November 1.

To avoid long lines at the Tax Collector's Office, taxpayers are encouraged to mail their payments to P.O. Box 1596 or deposit payments in the new mail slot located near the back corner of Town Hall.

According to state statute failure to receive a tax bill does not relieve the taxpayer of the requirement to pay the tax bill and any resulting interest if the payment is late. If payment is not received in the Collector's Office by the due date, interest shall accrue daily at a rate of 14 percent in accordance with state law. Any accrued interest for the first and/or second quarters shall appear on the third quarter coupon on the Actual Tax Bill in January. It is the property owner's responsibility to insure taxes are

Classic Movies in Fairhaven

The Millicent Library in Fairhaven is hosting monthly screenings of classic films. The screenings will be held in the library's downstairs auditorium on Monday nights at 7:00 pm.

Next, on November 5, will be Alfred Hitchcock's 1958 classic Vertigo, starring James Stewart as a detective drawn into an obsessive romantic mystery.

Finally, on December 3, there will be an all-ages screening of The 5,000 Fingers of Dr. T, a 1953 musical fantasy written by Dr. Seuss.

"If this initial series pulls in enough people, there'll be more," said series programmer Rob Gonsalves. "We need a local place where people can get together to see and discuss classic and foreign films. I hope the library can be that place."

Movie Review

Brothers Grim

By Rob Gonsalves
www.robsmovievault.com

The Darjeeling Limited*. Starring Owen Wilson, Adrien Brody, and Jason Schwartzman. Directed by Wes Anderson. Running time: 91 minutes. MPAA rating: R.

Enlightenment will elude you when you're looking for it, and find you when you're not. That's a possible theme of The Darjeeling Limited, the new exercise in melancholia from Wes Anderson (Rushmore, The Royal Tenenbaums). The movie unfolds in the same precisely compartmentalized place as Anderson's other films — in his head, really. Disappointed people slouch in the dead center of symmetrical compositions while the soundtrack ushers in mournful French singers or Kinks B-sides. It's a remarkably consistent universe, and Anderson — happily for his fans, unhappily for his detractors — shows no signs of wanting to leave it. Or does he?

Head and face swathed in bandages from a suicide attempt (an unintended tabloid irony), Owen Wilson's Francis Whitman has called his younger brothers Peter (Adrien Brody) and Jack (Jason Schwartzman) to join him in India for a train trip. They haven't spoken since their father's funeral a year ago, and Francis, who issues commands in the passive-aggressive form of suggestions ("Can we agree on that?" is his familiar refrain; "No" is not an optional response), seems to think only a ride on the Darjeeling Limited will clear their heads and bring them together. That, and frequent touristy stops to sample Indian rituals and make themselves feel spiritually connected.

Unfortunately for Francis' well-laid plans (his laminated itineraries recalling Dignan's "75-year plan" in Anderson and Wilson's debut Bottle Rocket), this is a Wes Anderson film, where disconnection prevails. This is the second Anderson movie in a row (after The Life Aquatic with Steve Zissou) in which people are shoehorned together on transportation while never feeling more isolated. Jack, nursing his hurt over his ex-girlfriend (Natalie Portman, who appears in the film's short prelude Hotel Chevalier), throws himself into a fling with comely stewardess Rita (Amara Karan). Peter wears his father's prescription glasses even though they give him headaches. All three brothers dose themselves out of unhappiness with various Indian anodynes.

The Darjeeling Limited has the rambling, random quality of life; India is an unpredictable place where real pain coexists with deep pleasure, and the Whitman brothers do their best to laminate it and impose their will on it. The folly of this is neatly encapsulated in an anecdote when Peter buys a cobra, which escapes its skull-and-crossbones box. You can't put India in a box, and for the first time, Anderson's tight rectangular compositions seem insufficient to take it all in. The movie finds Anderson straining to peel away his mannerisms and respond to a world outside the ones he usually so meticulously designs. (The train is fictional, but is similar to the Darjeeling Himalayan Railway.) Written by Anderson along with Schwartzman and his cousin Roman Coppola, the script drifts into tragedy, from which the brothers seem to learn nothing because they treat it as something to be learned from — again, imposing design on chaos — rather than something real to be responded to honestly. Only during a late-inning encounter in which nothing much happens do the brothers seem to get the true point of their journey.

Much like Jack, who compulsively puts Peter Sarstedt on his iPod to woo the objects of his desire and writes transparently autobiographical stories ("The characters are fictional," he keeps protesting), Anderson has wanted to forge clean, crisp art out of the slop and hysteria of emotional life. The Darjeeling Limited — preceded as it is by Hotel Chevalier, perhaps his most rigidly formalist work ever — seems to point towards a brave new world for Anderson. The characters inhabit that same Anderson headspace I talked about earlier (the movie's title doesn't just refer to the train), but by the end they've cast that off along with the burdens of their past. It's a beautiful film.

SALOME'S STARS

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) This is a good time to speak out on a difficult situation. You're known for your honesty, so people will listen and, perhaps, begin to make long-needed changes.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) The Bovine's sharp business sense alerts you to question the positions of those trying to push the Bull into a deal. Demand to see proof of what they profess.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Your quick thinking helps you get out of a troubling situation that was suddenly thrust upon you. Later on, you can expect to learn more about why it happened.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You might feel you've dotted all your i's and crossed all your t's regarding that upcoming deal. But there might be some facts you've ignored. Check again.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Time for the Lion to be more physically active. It will help shake off any lingering Leonine lethargy and restore your energy levels, so you'll be prepared for what lies ahead.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Helping those in need at this time is laudable. But don't ignore your own needs, especially where it concerns your health. A medical checkup is a wise move.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Good news: Your outspoken views about a controversial on-the-job situation could find unexpectedly strong support from a most unlikely workplace faction.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You might have to draw on your reservoir of spiritual strength to help someone special through a difficult time. Your loving attitude makes all the difference.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Your proven leadership qualities make you the perfect person to take on an important workplace task.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Although some compromise might need to be reached regarding your stand on an important issue, you'll still be able to get the most crucial points across.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A chance to make a career change carries both positive and uncertain possibilities. Best advice: Check it out thoroughly and don't be rushed into a decision.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You're still a staunch supporter of one side of an important issue. But be prepared to deal with new information that could cause you to question your current stand.

BORN THIS WEEK: You're perceptive and quick to act when you sense that someone needs help. You are an always-dependable friend.

SPECIAL EDUCATION - NOTIFICATION OF CHILD FIND PROCEDURES

It is the responsibility of the Old Rochester Regional and Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester School Districts to identify any child who is a resident of the town, or who attends a private school within the district, for suspected disability in relationship to special education eligibility (Individual with Disabilities Education Improvement Act or 603 CMR 28 Massachusetts Special Education Regulations).

The Old Rochester Regional School District provides a full continuum of special education services. Parents or public school professionals may refer a child for evaluation for special education eligibility, if regular education interventions are not successful. Preschool screenings are available four times per year in the elementary schools in the tri-town area — look in local papers or call your elementary school for dates and times.

If you believe your child ages 3-21 should be evaluated to determine eligibility for special education services, please make your request to the Principal of your neighborhood school. NONDISCRIMINATION NOTICE

The Old Rochester Regional School District and the Massachusetts School Superintendency Union No. 55, Marion, Mattapoisett, and Rochester, Massachusetts, are committed to equal employment and educational opportunity for all members of the school community. Students and employees are protected from discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, sex, religion, sexual orientation, homelessness, or disability in admission to, access to, treatment in, or employment in its programs and activities.

ATTENTION DRIVERS

If you are involved in a collision you have the right to have your investment, your vehicle, repaired at a shop of your choice. Your insurance company may suggest a list of repair shops. Do not be persuaded by this list, it is not a guarantee of quality of services, nor does it limit your options. You want a shop who will work for you and with you to put your vehicle back to pre-accident condition. COLLISION SERVICES OF MARION, INC. is a licensed, bonded, registered repair shop with the state of Massachusetts. We work with all insurance companies to expedite your repairs. The important thing to remember is we repair the vehicle for you, our customers, not the insurance companies. So remember, if the need arises, contact COLLISION SERVICES OF MARION, INC. to get back on the road.

I found the Aardvark!

Each week we will give away an Aardvark Gift and each month we give away a special Aardvark Gift Basket to one lucky person. All you have to do to enter is find the Aardvark! The little guy you are looking for looks exactly like the one pictured above (but don't put down this page as your answer, there's another one hidden somewhere in this issue).

The winner will be selected from all the correct answers picked by the deadline and the prize will have to be picked up at our office. Only one entry per household per issue please.

To enter, simply find the aardvark in this issue, then go to our web page and select the link "I Found the Aardvark" entry page. If you would like to enter by mail, send your name, address and phone number along with the issue date and page number you found him in to: Wanderer - I Found the Aardvark, P.O. Box 102, Mattapoisett, MA 02739.

Winner, past location and prizes listed on our website at: www.wanderer.com Click on "I Found the Aardvark"
